Market Overview

After the profitable months global equity and bond markets have enjoyed, we should not have been surprised by the weak and volatile markets experienced in February. It was always going to happen, the only uncertainty was when. We now have the answer – in February, markets experienced a dose of reality, or should that be “normality”. To be honest, it was not pleasant and the unusually high volatility came as a bit of a shock to everyone.

The dollar rose 1.7% following a sustained period of weakness. This in turn hurt other currencies, which saw the euro and sterling lose 2.1% and 3.1% respectively. The firm dollar didn't help US equity markets, with the S&P500 falling 3.8%; even the NASDAQ fell 1.9%. The weak euro and sterling also failed to help European markets: Germany's DAX index fell 5.7%, the UK equity market lost 4.0% and the Swiss market 4.6%. Turning to Asia, the Japanese equity market lost 4.5% and Hong Kong 6.1% (although it is still up 29.9% during the past year). The MSCI World and MSCI Emerging Market indices lost 4.3% and 4.7% respectively. The Chinese market lost 6.4%, and India 5.0%, although the Russian and Brazilian markets rose 0.7% and 0.5% respectively.

Supporting the assertion that there literally was “no place to hide”, the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond index lost 0.9% and of course the returns on (US) cash were negligible. Suppressed by the firm dollar, most commodity prices moved lower – the oil price lost 8.0% - with iron ore being the notable exception; it rose 7.9%.

Local market returns

Turning to local markets, the positive “Ramaphoria” market sentiment continues – at least for now - and proved to be supportive of returns and the rand. Notwithstanding the firm dollar, the rand gained a further 0.6%, bringing its four-month gain against the greenback to 19.8%! SA markets survived the change in the President and the Budget rather well, and even weathered the underwhelming cabinet reshuffle. The firm rand aided the bond market, which posted a bumper return of 3.9%. Negative equity markets globally weighed on local equity returns and the All Share index lost 2.0%. The major sector movements saw the Basic Materials and Industrial indices lose 4.8% and 3.0% respectively, but the firm rand and bond market helped Financials to a 2.6% gain. The Small cap index actually rose 0.3%, but have lost 1.3% during the past year, while the Top40 (large cap) index is up 19.8%. For what it’s worth, the Gold index lost 14.2%, bringing its three-month return to -26.4%.

Investment manager comment

The return on the Fund was -2.0% versus the -2.0% All Share index return. Despite the weak equity market conditions, not many shares in the Fund registered declines. AdaptIT fell 23.3%, although it did rise 62.8% last month. Richemont fell 8.7% and Naspers 3.3%. On a more positive note, Discovery rose 5.9%, Echo Polska 7.8%, Standard Bank 8.5%, Firststrand 11.1%, and EOH 11.7%.

Disclaimer

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (CIS) should be considered as medium to long-term investments. The value may go up as well as down and past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. CIS's are traded at the ruling price and can engage in scrip lending and borrowing. The collective investment scheme may borrow up to 10% of the market value of the portfolio to bridge insufficient liquidity. A schedule of fees, charges and maximum commissions is available on request from the Manager. There is no guarantee in respect of capital or returns in a portfolio. A CIS may be closed to new investors in order for it to be managed more efficiently in accordance with its mandate. CIS prices are calculated on a net asset basis, which is the total value of all the assets in the portfolio including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions (brokerage, STT, VAT, auditor's fees, bank charges, trustee and custodian fees and the annual management fee) from the portfolio divided by the number of participatory interests (units) in issue. Forward pricing is used. The Fund's Total Expense Ratio (TER) reflects the percentage of the average Net Asset Value (NAV) of the portfolio that was incurred as charges, levies and fees related to the management of the portfolio. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's. During the phase in period TER's do not include information gathered over a full year. Transaction Costs (TC) is the percentage of the value of the Fund incurred as costs relating to the buying and selling of the Fund's underlying assets. Transaction costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of Fund, investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER. Where a current yield has been included for Funds that derive its income primarily from interest bearing income, the yield is a weighted average yield of all underlying interest bearing instruments as at the last day of the month. This yield is subject to change as market rates and underlying investments change. The Manager retains full legal responsibility for any third-party-named portfolio. Where foreign securities are included in a portfolio there may be potential constraints on liquidity and the repatriation of funds, macroeconomic risks, political risks, foreign exchange risks, tax risks, settlement risks; and potential limitations on the availability of market information. The investor acknowledges the inherent risk associated with the selected investments and that there are no guarantees. Please note that all documents, notifications of deposit, investment, redemption and switch applications must be received by Prescient by or before 13:00 (SA), to be transacted at the net asset value price for that day. Where all required documentation is not received before the stated cut off time Prescient shall not be obliged to transact at the net asset value price as agreed to. Money market Funds are priced at 1pm all other Funds are priced at either 3pm or 5pm depending on the nature of the Fund. Prices are published daily and are available on the Prescient website. Performance has been calculated using net NAV to NAV numbers with income reinvested. The performance for each period shown reflects the return for investors who have been fully invested for that period. Individual investor performance may differ as a result of initial fees, the actual investment date, the date of reinvestments and dividend withholding tax. Full performance calculations are available from the manager on request. For any additional information such as fund prices, brochures and application forms please go to www.maestroinvestment.co.za.
