Market Overview

Investment markets continue to intrigue and fascinate; October was no exception. After a period of robust developed market returns, it was the turn of emerging markets to produce strong returns during the past month. Developed equity markets lost ground in absolute and relative returns: the US equity market lost 2.6%, the UK market lost 4.9% (bringing its year-to-date return to -26.1%) and the German equity market lost all of 9.4%. Even the defensive Swiss equity market lost 5.9% in October. In contrast, the Indian equity market rose 4.1%, and China 0.2%, the net result being that the MSCI World index lost 3.1% (bringing the year-to-date return to -2.8%) while MSCI Emerging market index gained 2.0% (year-to-date return of -1.0%).

It was noteworthy that mid and small-sized companies outperformed their larger peers. The S&P Mid and Small Cap indices rose 2.1% and 2.5% respectively, versus the 2.6% decline of US large caps, although the year-to-date returns are heavily skewed in favour of large caps.

Emerging market currencies were firm during the month, as the dollar came under pressure. Strangely though, the DXY dollar index actually rose 0.2% on the month. Within the commodity price complex, precious metals were a bit weak but base metals and soft commodity prices were firm. The oil price lost 10.2% as a result of concerns about oversupply and slowing demand. The Bloomberg Global Aggregate Bond index was flat, posting a return of 0.1%.

Local market returns

The Basic Material index lost 10.9% and the Financial index 5.8% although the Industrial index eked out a positive return of 0.4%. This all contributed to a decline of 4.7% in the All Share index. The Top40 index lost 5.1%, the Mid cap index lost "only" 3.1%. The Small cap index actually posted a positive return of 0.1%. The All Bond index rose 0.9%. In line with other emerging market currencies, the rand rose 2.7% relative to the dollar. Shares which disappointed during the month included the Satrix Resources Exchange Traded Fund (ETF) which lost 13.4%, Billiton 13.0%, Richemont 9.9%, and Firstrand and Transaction Capital each lost 8.8%. On a more positive note, MTN rose 2.9%, Naspers 6.8%, and Cashbuild 8.2%.

Monthly fund returns

During October the Maestro Growth Fund's NAV fell -3.5% versus the Fund's benchmark which decreased 3.1%. The Maestro Equity Prescient Fund fell 3.5% versus the 4.7% decrease of the All Share index. The Prescient Income Provider Fund returned 0.3% against its benchmark return of 0.3%. The Prescient Bond QuantPlus Fund rose 0.7% versus its benchmark which increased 0.9%. Central Park Global Balanced Fund fell 6.1% in rand terms versus the 4.4% decrease of the rand benchmark.

Units in linked insurance policies should be considered as medium to long-term investments. The value of units may go up as well as down and past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Unit prices are calculated on a net asset basis, which is the total value of all the assets in the portfolio including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions (Brokerage, Securities Transfer Tax, VAT, Auditor's fees, Bank Charges, Custodian fees and the annual Management fee) from the portfolio divided by the number of units in issue. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of any underlying international investments to go up and down. Forward pricing is used. Maestro Investment Management (Pty) Limited and 27Four Life Limited are members of the Association for Savings and Investments of South Africa (ASISA).
